

Alain Cardon, MCC

Breakthrough Catalyst, Performance Booster, Perspective Agitator, ...
(coach)

Master Certified Coach since 2002, mostly recognized for his specific competencies in team and organizational coaching, Alain Cardon is also a coach trainer and coach supervisor with coach students in France, Belgium, Spain and Romania where he has opened a coaching school in 2007.

As far as his style in individual coaching for executives and personal clients with life coaching issues, Alain has developed a personal, confronting and empowering coaching style which may be defined as a blend of brief, systemic, creative, and breakthrough approaches. Although French national and part-time resident, his intensely international personal life and career also makes it difficult to define Alain's coaching heritage as originating from one or another school of thought, one or another national frame of reference.

B.A. Social Sciences, Macalester College, Minnesota, USA. Educational Psychology at the U. of Minnesota, USA. Alain Cardon is a former member of the Institut Français d'Analyse Transactionnelle (I.F.A.T.), « expert » in l'Association Progrès du Management (APM), author (of twelve books) at the Editions d'Organisation, Paris, France, consultant and coach. Alain Cardon is presently the managing director of Métasystème France.

Alain Cardon is author of numerous books (12+) all first published at the Editions d'Organisation (Paris), some translated to Italian, Spanish and Romanian. He has also written articles published in daily papers (LESECHOS) and periodicals in France, the United States, Italy and Romania.
