

Alan Seale, PCC, MSC

Leadership and Transformation Coach

Founder and Director of the Center for Transformational Presence

Author of *Intuitive Living, Soul Mission * Life Vision, The Manifestation Wheel* and most recently The Power of Your Presence

Coaching, in its highest form, is about calling forth people and organizations to their greatness. It is about transformation. It is about forward movement. It is about tapping into the emerging potential within the evolutionary flow and helping our clients learn to ride that wave of potential into new ways of being and doing. Join leadership and transformation coach Alan Seale as he talks about what calling forth greatness and partnering with potential really means for us as coaches and leaders in a 21st-century world.

Alan Seale is an award-winning author, leadership and transformation coach, and the founder and director of the Center for Transformational Presence.
